The Gull's Cry Soars for Flight Again with New SGA E-Board

By Sophie Theiss, SGA President

With the new SGA E-Board diving right into the deep end of projects and ideas, one thing we want to do is a newsletter. SGA has a weekly video news series, "SGA's Campus Connect," in Fall & Spring, but we wanted to take it further. Talks of a little something called "The Gull's Cry" were mentioned throughout conversations of reminiscence of GCSC. With that, there has been a noticeable silence from The Gull's Cry since 2014. As a homage to "The Gull's Cry," SGA is letting it soar once again! Upcoming events, SGA projects & updates, and all things student life you can look forward to!

SGA Events Are Fully Planned For Fall

By Marisa Weiman, SGA Events Coordinator

If you're a frequent participant at the SGA events, then we have exciting news for you! All of the SGA events for the Fall semester are organized. This school year, expect more cultural inclusivity, free food, and big prizes that you won't want to miss. Make sure to sign up for text alerts by texting "GCEVENTS" to 79516 so you never miss an event. Look forward to new and exciting activities on campus, and if you would like to help you can contact SGA Event Coordinator Marisa Weiman at sga.events.gcsc@gmail.com to find out how.

Outdoor Lounge in the Works Behind Student Lounge

By Sophie Theiss, SGA President

If you are a frequent visitor of the Student Lounge & Game Room in SUW, you may have seen the garden & outdoor patio. The previous Garden Club on campus used the space for planting, but they have since relocated their workspace. Hoping to have more outdoor lounge space on campus, SGA got to work cleaning up the area over the summer. Once the Fall semester begins, SGA E-Board will propose an allocation to SGA to cover the-
